Makarios reported dead in Cyprus coup

ATHENS (AP) — Greek army officers commanding the Cypriot National Guard have seized control of Cyprus and toppled the government of President Makarios, Radio Cyprus announced today. Reports differed on the fate of Makarios.

Radio Cyprus announced newspaper publisher Nicholas Sampson had been appointed president to succeed Makarios. Sampson publishes the newspaper Machi, meaning combat.

The radio earlier reported that Makarios had been killed but did not repeat this report in announcing the appointment of Sampson.

A Turkish Cypriot radio monitored in Ankara said Makarios had survived the coup and taken refuge with the United Nations force assigned to keep peace between Greeks and Turks on the island.

The Turkish broadcast said Makarios appealed to "all loyal Cypriots to struggle to end the foreign aggression in our homeland." It said he also sought United Nations intervention to halt

"unnecessary bloodshed among brothers."

In Greece a military source said the Greek armed forces had been put in a state of alert, and in Turkey Premier Bulent Ecevit canceled a trip to Turkey's Aegean area and called an extraordinary cabinet meeting.

Ecevit declared Turkey "will not let any alien touch the Turkish community's basic rights on the island."

The Greek officers of the National Guard were recently accused by Makarios of supporting the terrorist Eoka-B organization, which seeks to unite Cyprus with Greece.

Union with Greece, or Enosis, had also been an early goal of Makarios, but he gave it up in favor of an independent Cyprus because of bitter opposition to Enosis by the island's large Turkish minority.

Makarios, 60, was the political leader for the island's struggle for independence from Britain in the 1950s and had been president since Cyprus (Please turn to page 2)

Colson testimony set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles W. Colson, once one of President Nixon's closest political advisers, is next to come up for questioning by the House Judiciary Committee impeachment inquiry.

Colson, imprisoned for the part he played in White House efforts to defame Daniel Ellsberg for leaking the Pentagon Papers, appears today as the next to last witness the committee intends to call.

Herbert W. Kalmbach, Nixon's former personal lawyer, is scheduled as a witness Tuesday. The committee's crucial deliberations are to start next Monday. A final recommendation is expected around July 30.

Colson, who held the title special counsel to the President, promised to tell everything he knows when he pleaded guilty June 3.

The committee also will question Colson about his role in helping arrange for a political contribution by the dairy industry to Nixon's 1972 campaign. One of the allegations the committee is investigating is whether Nixon raised the milk support prices in 1971 in exchange for a $2 million campaign pledge.

Colson was the White House contact man for dairy industry representatives during discussions about the contribution. Nixon has said he increased milk prices because of congressional pressure.

In other Watergate-related developments:

—Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., said he would vote for Nixon's conviction in a Senate impeachment trial if Nixon refused a Supreme Court order to give up Watergate tape recordings. Weicker, a member of the Senate Watergate committee, was interviewed in the CBS program "Face the Nation."

—The Watergate committee issued its report Sunday, but did not draw conclusions about individual guilt or innocence. With that report, the committee went out of business.

—The House committee is expected to release more impeachment evidence this week.

—The trial of California Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke begins today. He is charged with lying to the Senate Judiciary Committee about his involvement in trying to bring the 1972 Republican National convention to San Diego.

Colson repeatedly has denied knowledge of the Watergate break-in and he had left the White House by the time the cover-up began unraveling in the spring of 1973.

The committee is interested however, in the fact that one of the first things Nixon did upon learning of the June 17, 1972, break-in at Democratic headquarters was to talk to Colson.

The president telephoned Colson six times and met with him once in the days immediately after the break-in. The Judiciary Committee has subpoenaed tapes of all Nixon's conversations to Colson but has not been given any. And none of the edited transcripts released by the White House deal with Colson conversations.

But those transcripts are filled with references to the tall, assertive lawyer who was quoted during the 1972 political campaign as saying he would walk over his grandmother to see Nixon elected.

"I talked to him about many, many political things," Nixon said in a March 21, 1973, conversation about Watergate with his former counsel John W. Dean III. "But I never talk about this sort of thing, because he's, uh, very harmful ... He must be damn sure I don't know anything. And I don't..."

Nixon also called Colson "a name-dropper" and said he talked too much. It was Colson who got his friend, E. Howard Hunt Jr., a job at the White House and after Hunt had teamed with G. Gordon Liddy to provide political intelligence for Nixon's re-election campaign, Colson prodded the committee to make use of their services.

picketed a dozen state facilities in Ohio, with employees at some state liquor stores vowing to join the job action.

The dispute between the National Football League Players Association and the NFL Management Council involving players' rights entered its third week with no settlement in sight. The College All-Star game already has been canceled due to the dispute and the next casualty could be the July 27 Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, which begins the exhibition season.

In Baltimore, union spokesman Barry Able said union and city negotiators reached agreement in the municipal employees strike at about 2 a.m. Three hours later, he said, both sides in the police dispute reached agreement on economic issues. He said the negotiators would recommend

Local guardsmen back from camp

Company A, 166th Infantry returned home late Saturday following completion of its annual two weeks field training at Camp McCoy, Wis.

Led by Capt. David Harp, the 144-man company conducted range firing with 81mm mortars, assaults on special courses with live ammunition and mock battle situations with aggressor forces. The first week of training was primarily conducted on the platoon level and was culminated by platoon live fire exercises on Thursday.

Friday of the first week the company participated in the 73rd Brigade parade, honoring outstanding accomplishments of companies and individuals in the brigade.

On Monday of the second week the company moved into the field as part of a battalion tactical training exercise. At least four men in the company were treated for heat exhaustion as temperatures in area peaked near 100 degrees Monday afternoon. The company conducted several tactical movements during the four-day field maneuvers before returning to the cantonment area Thursday.

During their free time many of the guardsmen made use of the post swimming pool and gym. The company also participated in brigade softball and volleyball tournaments.

Record-Herald staffer Ed Summers provides pictorial coverage of the summer training activities on pages 7 and 8 of today's edition.

Gen. Carl Spaatz dies at 83; directed mighty air armada

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man who directed the smashing of Germany from the air and the final strategic bombing of Japan in World War II, Gen. Carl Spaatz, has died at 83.

Spaatz, one of the aviation pioneers instrumental in keeping the U.S. Army Air Corps operating after World War I, later served as the first Chief of Staff of the U.S. Air Force.

The Air Force said Spaatz died Sunday morning of congestive heart failure.

President Truman named Spaatz chief of staff when the independent Air Force was created in 1947. Spaatz retired in 1948 and since then made his home in suburban Chevy Chase, Md.

Spaatz participated in combat operations in all theatres during World War II and was present at all three surrender ceremonies which ended the war.

A native of Boyertown, Pa., Spaatz graduated from the U.S. Military Academy in 1914 and won his wings in 1916. Despite serving only 19 days at the front, he was credited with shooting down three German planes in World War I and won the Distinguished Service Cross.

In World War II Spaatz directed air attacks against the Germans in North Africa and continued that work in Sicily, Italy and Germany.

He commanded the U.S. Strategic Air Forces in Europe from before D-Day until the German surrender, and then moved to the Pacific theater to direct the bombing of Japan.

Spaatz once remarked that "a second-best Air Force is like a second-best hand at poker — no good at all."

INMATES DRIVEN FROM COURT — Vehicles carrying hostages leave U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C. inmates that were released by two convicts holding. Fourteen inmates that were in the detention cells in the basement of the court left the building in five vehicles.

Convicts reject government offers as hostages escape

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two armed convicts today rejected government offers and pressed their seige in the U.S. District Court cellblock even though their seven hostages had escaped nearly 24 hours earlier.

The hostages fled Sunday morning after enduring 68 hours of captivity.

The escape became possible when authorities smuggled a key to the hostages.

Justice Department spokesman Mark Sheehan said today that Frank Gorham Jr. turned down a government offer to fly Gorham and his partner, Robert N. Jones, to federal prison medical facilities in Springfield, Mo., or Marion, Ill.

Sheehan cited no reason for the refusal, but Gorham said in a telephone call to radio station WASH that the pair sought a prison on the East Coast or "Lawrence Coast," presumably meaning the St. Lawrence River.

Before the line was mysteriously cut off, Gorham said that in addition to the geographical demand, the pair wanted assurances they would not be separated and that they would not be confined to solitary.

Negotiations between authorities and the two convicts continued through the night and into the morning. Food also was sent down to the prisoners, Sheehan said.

Earlier, the government turned off the air conditioning in the basement of the courthouse at the foot of Capitol Hill and briefly turned the furnace on. The temperatures outside hovered in the high 80s.

At 7 p.m. Sunday, the convicts released a woman inmate, Almeda Washington, one of several prisoners in the detention center caught up in the standoff when Gorham and Jones used a concealed .22-caliber pistol to take over at 2 p.m. Thursday.

The convicts had voluntarily released one of their original eight hostages early Friday and 14 other prisoners Saturday morning.

Gorham, 26, a convicted bank robber and one-time Vietnam paratrooper, was sleeping Sunday morning while Jones, 24, also known as Otis Wilkerson, was on the phone negotiating.

One of the hostages, deputy marshal Calvin L. Mouton, had asked officials to smuggle in an elevator key in a sanitary napkin requested by one of the women.

The hostages — Mouton; deputy marshal Joe Driskell, 57; William J. Garber, 46, an attorney; John J. Hurley, 61, an attorney for Gorham and Jones; Ralph W. Swartz, 38, a Justice Department auditor; Deputy marshal William Colquit, 37; and Justice Department secretary Debbie Collins, 24 — received the key and moved to a rear elevator out of Jones' sight.

Moments after the escape, Gorham told a reporter over the phone: "The goddam mother-hostages done slid outta here, you understand? I was off; I was off shift, man."

Mouton said that despite the threats (Please turn to page 2)

National Airlines and the copper industry were hit by strikes today, but a tentative settlement was reached in the lengthy walkout by garbagemen and other city employees in Baltimore.

A union spokesman said negotiators would recommend approval of the offer to 3,000 striking Baltimore employees, some of whom have been off the job since July 1. A separate dispute involving city police remained unsettled with the issue of reprisals the main stumbling block.

The National Airlines strike involved mechanics. In the copper industry, workers walked out on four major producers in a dispute that threatened to involve 30,000 industry employees. Prison guards and other workers approval of the offer if it included a pledge of no reprisals against striking police, who walked out Thursday night, joining other city workers on the picket line.

Able declined to discuss the details of either offer, saying they would first be announced to the union membership.

Elsewhere, shipworkers, miners, autoworkers and bus drivers were involved in labor disputes — most of them centered on monetary issues. Here is a rundown:

NAPLES, Fla. — About 1,600 mechanics, inspectors, clerks, cleaners and fuel truck drivers of the International Association of Machinists struck National Airlines after an impasse in negotiations over fringe benefits. A union negotiator said other unions would honor IAM pickets and the airline would be shut down. National serves London and 45 cities in the United States with 150 daily flights. It employs about 8,000 persons.

A wage increase of between 17 and 20 per cent apparently was agreeable to both sides but insurance, pensions, holidays, and vacation time were the sticking points in the ongoing talks.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Workers struck four of the nation's largest producers of copper — American Smelting and Refining Co., Magma Copper Co., Phelps Dodge Corp., and Kennecott Copper Co. Several smaller firms — Inspiration, Cities Service and Miami Copper Co. (near Miami, Ariz.) — also were being picketed.

The United Steelworkers of America spearheaded talks for a coalition of 26 (Please turn to page 2)

Deaths, Funerals

BISHOP L.A. DAHMER

Death claims Bishop Dahmer

Bishop L.A. Dahmer, 73, Walnut Creek Road, died at 12:30 a.m. Monday at his home. He had been ill for the past five years.

Born in Hattiesburg, Miss., Bishop Dahmer moved to the Washington C.H. area from Wilmington 34 years ago. He had served as minister of the All Nations Church of Christ, 1217 Forest St., for the past 49 years. He was the presiding bishop of all churches of his faith.

Bishop Dahmer is survived by his wife, the former Pearl Shaw; five sons, Charles Brown, Moses Lane, Wash., William and George Dahmer, Columbus, Carroll Dahmer, Cincinnati, and Wilbur Dahmer, Xenia; seven daughters, Miss Merle Dahmer, Springfield, Mrs. Donald (Gloria) Austin, Columbus, Mrs. Harvey (Ellen) Jameson, Mrs. Esto (Elaine) Hattcock, 610 McLean St., Mrs. Elmer (Annetta) Smith, 925 John St., Mrs. Charles (Norma) Terrell, 973 Duke Plaza, and Mrs. James (Edwina) Smith, Knoxville, Ky.

He is also survived by two brothers, Webster, of Chicago, Ill., and Castro, living in Florida; three sisters, Mrs. Kenneth (Erlene) Beard, of Hattiesburg, Miss., Mrs. Thomas (Henrietta) Edwards and Mrs. Herman (Myrtle) Henderson, of Compton, Calif.; 34 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the All Nations Church of Christ, with the Rev. R.E. Rose, minister of the Calvary Community Church, Columbus, officiating.

Friends may call at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, Washington C.H., from 7 to 4 p.m. and from 7 until 9 p.m. Thursday and until noon Friday. After noon Friday, friends may call at the church.

Mrs. Catherine Western

Mrs. Catherine Rothrock Western, 81, of 332 East St., died at 3 a.m. Monday in the Margaret Clark Oakfield Convalescent Center where she had been a patient since 1967.

A native of Washington C.H., Mrs. Western was a graduate of Washington High School and lived in this community until joining the Civil Service at the outbreak of World War I. She then lived in Miami, Fla., until her return to Washington C.H. in 1966, shortly before the death of her husband, Clemens Western. She was a member of Grace United Methodist Church and Royal Chapter No. 29 of the Order of Eastern Star.

She is survived by a brother, Robert Rothrock, 332 East St., one nephew and four nieces. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Phillip, in 1966, and Charles, in 1965.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Gerstner-Kinzer Funeral Home, with the Rev. Allen Puffenberger officiating. Burial will be in Washington Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 until 4 p.m. and from 7 until 9 p.m. Wednesday.

MRS. MARCELLA CRAWFORD — Services for Mrs. Marcella Crawford, 74, of 928 S. Hinde St., were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, Washington C.H., with the Rev. Robert Kline, pastor of the Church of Christ in Christian Union, officiating. Mrs. Crawford died Wednesday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Washington Cemetery were Archie McCullough, Ronald Hurlless, John Creed, Jerry Crawford, Robert Burns and Lewis Biehl.

MRS. CHARLES H. DOWNARD — Services for Mrs. Laura Lucille Downard, 54, wife of Charles H. Downard, Rt. 1, Bloomingburg, were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the Gerstner-Kinzer Funeral Home with the Rev. Ralph Wolford, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Mrs. Downard, an employee of Avoset Corp., died Wednesday.

Pallbearers for burial in Washington Cemetery were Chester and David Burlile, John Dyson, John Baker, Carl Shiltz and Paul Franklin.

Vicious storm hits Defiance, fells trees

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Felled trees blocked several streets, but officials reported no injuries after a heavy thunderstorm Sunday night here.

A police dispatcher said the storm also knocked down some utility lines, while much of north central and northwest Ohio was under a tornado watch.

The National Weather Service also had issued a severe thunderstorm warning for Putnam and Allen counties.

U.S. plans quick atom tests before accord takes effect

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most Pentagon research specialists are satisfied the United States can adequately test several important new nuclear weapons, including bigger multiple warheads, before a limit on underground testing takes effect.

"We can do what we want to do in that time frame," said one official referring to the more than 20 months remaining of unrestricted nuclear testing below ground.

This confidence probably is based largely on an expectation that the pace of testing will speed up significantly. The Atomic Energy Commission reportedly has asked for another $89 million for this purpose this year.

A new U.S.-Soviet treaty bans all underground nuclear test explosions greater than 150 kilotons, the equivalent of 150,000 tons of TNT, after March 31, 1976.

A previous treaty has forbidden all nuclear tests in the atmosphere, in space and under water since 1963.

Both United States and Russia conducted nuclear weapons tests last week, about a week after the new treaty was signed in Moscow by President Nixon and Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev.

A 400 kiloton multiple warhead for the U.S. Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile is among the weapons the Pentagon is moving to develop, as hedges against possible failure to achieve a long-range curb on both U.S. and Soviet nuclear arms.

This would be about twice as powerful as the current generation of multiple warheads (MIRVs) that can be aimed at separate targets after being carried aloft by a single Minuteman ICBM.

Some Pentagon research specialists are known to be disturbed because the new treaty forecloses the United States from matching the size of new Soviet MIRVs.

But gaining greater accuracy for missile warheads and greater explosive yield from a given weight of nuclear material appear to be the most important research objectives right now.

Neither of these projects are disturbed by the treaty limitations.

1st quarter U.S. crime skyrockets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crime in the United States soared up 15 per cent during the first three months of this year, the FBI reported today.

It was the second consecutive period reflecting a dramatic increase in the national rate of murder, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft — the crime categories measured by the FBI in its Uniform Crime Reports.

The latest crime surge strengthened the pattern forecast by the 16 per cent over-all increase during the last three months of 1973. By contrast, the full-year figures for 1972 showed a 4 per cent decline, the first drop in 17 years, and the figures for the first nine months of 1973 showed the crime rate was holding steady.

The FBI figures, based on statistics reported by state and local police agencies across the country, are not considered totally accurate by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration which has concluded from its own polling that the nation experiences at least twice as much crime as the FBI figures reflect.

The FBI report showed that offenses in all seven crime categories totaled 15 per cent more than in the same period a year ago.

Broken down by categories, the largest increase was 19 per cent for larceny, followed by 15 per cent for burglary and 10 per cent for rape. Murder and assault each rose 7 per cent, auto theft 5 per cent and robbery 1 per cent.

In the breakdown by population, the sharpest increases were in communities of less than 10,000 where the biggest surge was 33 per cent for murder.

Only cities of more than one million showed any significant crime decrease. Taken together, big cities reported an 8 per cent decline in robbery, a 4 per cent drop in assault, and a 5 per cent decrease in motor vehicle thefts.

By region, crime increased the most — 23 per cent — in southern states. Western states reported a 17 per cent surge and northeastern and north central states listed a 9 per cent increase.

Late Sunday, spectators outside the courthouse shouted such things as "Freedom, Freedom, Freedom" for about an hour before dispersing.

Strikes hit

copper unions. ASARCO's operations in Maryland and New Jersey were struck first after no agreement was reached on a new three-year contract by the midnight deadline Sunday. Up to 30,000 workers could ultimately be idled by the strike, about half of them in Arizona where 52 per cent of the nation's copper is mined.

Wages are the principal issue. Average salaries are about $4.50 hourly in the industry.

OHIO: Some 2,000 state employees, mostly prison guards and blue-collar workers, are striking at seven penal centers and five mental health hospitals. It began at one prison July 6 and has gradually spread with more walkouts expected. The Teamsters, one of three unions whose members are involved, sanctioned the strike Sunday. The other two unions urged employees to work. National Guard troops watched over the state's main prison at Lucasville. Courts in several cities have issued orders restricting picket activity.

Strikers are demanding legislative action to provide a 31-cent per hour pay increase. Prison guards start at $3.52 an hour.

BALTIMORE, Md. — Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau said Sunday night he fired 82 officers who were on probation when they walked off their jobs in a wage dispute last Thursday. Others were demoted and the remainder will be judged on an individual basis after the strike is settled. About one-quarter of the 2,900 officers in the department are on strike.

Meanwhile, negotiations continued in an effort to end a walkout by 3,000 other city employees that began with a garbage strike July 1. A judge imposed heavy fines on the unions involved and threatened union leaders with jail sentences if they failed to lower their pickets.

The police union sought a starting wage for rookies of $10,000 compared to the current $8,761 and a top scale increase from $11,082 to $13,500. The city workers demanded a 50-cent hourly hike on top of the current $3 to $4 per hour. The city offered a 6 per cent hike.

LORDSTOWN, Ohio — About 4,000 open grievances and 41 local contract issues were to be discussed today between General Motors Corp. and striking United Auto Workers. Local 1112 officials said negotiations Sunday produced very little. The strike, which began Friday, has idled 7,800 hourly wage earners at the Chevrolet Vega and van truck assembly lines. Senior employees' rights to shift preferences, product standards and distribution of overtime were among major outstanding issues.

OAKLAND, Calif. — Talks between striking bus drivers and the AC Transit District broke off over the weekend. Amalgamated Transit Union members walked off their jobs 13 days ago. A number of issues, including a cost-of-living escalator clause, remain to be resolved. Some 200,000 commuters have been stranded by the walkout. The union sought a two-year contract with a 41-cent raise the first year and a 60-cent boost the second. AC Transit said it is in debt and granting the demands would force service cutbacks or fare hikes.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Bus drivers struck Montgomery City Lines in a wage dispute May 1. The drivers sought to raise the $2.80 hourly wage but the company asked them to take a 30-cent per hour cut.

PLYMOUTH, Mich. — Supervisors have assumed guard duty at the Detroit House of Corrections where 175 guards and other employees walked off their jobs in a contract dispute Saturday.

Wapakoneta boy dies in W. Virginia mishap

POCA, W. Va. (AP) — A four-year-old Ohio boy was killed Saturday when he darted into the path of a car on a West Virginia road, sheriff's deputies said.

The child was identified as Scott Wayne Douglas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Donald Douglas, of Wapakoneta, Ohio. The driver of the car was not charged, authorities said.

Stock list posts gain

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market today added to Friday's gains but appeared to be losing some of its upward force.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials pulled back from an early surge of better than 9 points to stand at 792.08, up 4.85, at noon. Gainers led losers by 4-to-1 on the New York Stock Exchange.

Brokers said the early buying stemmed partly from a carryover of the bullish sentiment that sent the Dow to a 27.61 rise on Friday. It got an extra boost when the First National Bank of Chicago left its prime lending rate unchanged at 12 per cent, although its formula for determining the key rate called for 12.75.

Long Island Lighting led the NYSE active list, up 1/8 at 11 1/8.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was up .75 at 77.42.

The NYSE's composite index of all its listed common stocks was up .44 at 43.80.

Development Corp. of America, the Amex volume leader, climbed 1/4 to 4 1/2.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A cool front moving off the Great Lakes was expected to hold temperatures in northern Ohio to the upper 70s and lower 80s today. More readings in the upper 80s and lower 90s were forecast for the extreme southern portions of the state.

The National Weather Service said clear skies were likely for the state tonight with lows in the 50s north to the lower 60s south. Mild conditions were forecast for Tuesday with highs in the 70s and lower 80s.

High temperatures Sunday reached into the 90s over most of Ohio. At Toledo the mercury reached 99.

Youngstown and Canton-Akron recorded a half-inch of rain Sunday night. Cleveland reported .25 of an inch and Findlay, .06.

Fatal fire investigated in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Columbus fire department was expected to conclude its investigation today into a weekend blaze that killed six persons in an apartment complex.

The victims in the Saturday fire were identified as Enriqueta Bivens, 21; her four children, Michael, 4; Chad, 2; Shad, 2; and Vickie, six months; and a downstairs neighbor, Kathy Green, 11. Coroner William Adron said four of the children apparently died as they slept, and the infant was found lying beneath her mother's body in the hallway.

Daniel Bivens, 24, father of the four children, escaped injury after jumping out a window.

State arson investigator Roy Moore said the fire began in the living room. He estimated damage at $4,000 to the apartment and adjoining units.

Moore said a passerby spotted the fire shortly after 6 a.m. Saturday and ran to get help, but was unable to enter the apartment because of the heat and smoke.

Neighbors said the complex was the scene of a fire which killed two children in 1973.

Consumers on horns of dilemma

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Sometimes you can ignore the numbers or say that they lie, but when you're impaled on them, as is the American consumer, you know by the pain that the numbers are real.

Most significant of the numerical spikes are those that show disposable income has risen close to 10 per cent during the past year but that prices have risen even more sharply, although only slightly more so.

But the pain doesn't come from prices alone. Taxes too have risen. So, despite those pay increases, real spendable earnings at midyear are 4.5 per cent below a year ago.

Adding to the financial strain of many families is the necessity to pay off some of the big installment credit loans that were taken out in 1972 and 1973 — some of them forced on consumers by existing financial strains.

According to Harris Bank of Chicago, the rise of installment credit in those two years was exceeded only once before in the past two decades. It increased 15.1 per cent, compared to 16 per cent in 1955-1956.

There were unusual factors at work in that earlier period. It was a time of unprecedented increases in automobile sales, for one thing. For another, it was the beginning of a trend toward those "easy credit" terms we have today. Moreover, debt in relation to income was far less than it is today.

The strains are showing up in the savings rate, which most forecasters believed would rise this year. It might have, for a while, but it too seems to have fallen victim to the need to pay inflated bills.

In the last three months of 1973 it jumped to 7.3 per cent of disposable personal income, after having reached a low point of 5.7 per cent in the previous quarter. In the early part of this year it dropped back to 6.6 per cent.

The most plausible explanation is that consumers had little choice but to spend rather than save because of the increases in the prices of gasoline, heating oil and food. Already at their credit limit, they obtained the money from what might have been earmarked for the bank or an insurance policy.

A good many economic forecasters believe that installment credit, now totaling close to $150 billion, will rise more slowly in the second half of the year. It is, in fact, rising currently at a rate less than onehalf that of 1973.

Strongsville blasts eyed

STRONGSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Police were investigating explosions that rocked the Hunting Meadows housing development Sunday, almost destroying two new homes and heavily damaging two others.

Damage could run as high as $120,000, police said.

No injuries were reported in the blasts which occurred at about 2:20 a.m.

Federal investigators said dynamite may have been used. Investigators speculated that the bombings may have resulted from use of non-union labor by the builders.

The homes were built by John B. Hootman Builders of Berea and Delmont Builders of North Ridgeville. None of the houses had been sold.

Opinion And Comment

Trout, oranges and beer

Anyone for smoked trout, oranges and beer? The medical columnist Dr. G. C. Thosteson recently recommended this combination as an ideally nutritive diet should one be cast away for a year on a desert island.

The question had been raised by a reader. In reply the doctor told of a fishing trip in Canada when the above comestibles were provided by the guide. "The trout," he wrote, "provided the necessary protein and fat. The oranges the carbohydrates, vitamin C and minerals, and the beer the fluids." He also opined he might "forsake the beer in favor of fresh water, which I certainly hope is available on your desert island." Sounds fine for a meal or two. But for a year? Oh, for a few coconuts!

WASHINGTON CALLING . . . by Marquis Childs

California's Proposition 9

SAN FRANCISCO — The googoes, the good government forces as they were derisively called in another day, are standing tall in this the most populous state in the union. They put over by a whopping three-to-one margin a campaign reform measure applying the tightest controls over the big spenders and the lobbyists.

This, let it be said, where once the powerful high-paid lobbies in Sacramento dictated to a supine legislature what should and should not pass. Sparked by Common Cause, a broad California Coalition for Proposition 9 raised more than $400,000 to put over the constitutional reform.

But just as important as the money were the thousands of volunteers, many of them young, in a multitude of good government organizations who did the leg-work first to get the several hundred thousand signatures putting the initiative on the ballot and then ringing doorbells throughout the state. This is a potent lesson in what people once they are organized can do.

It is a potent lesson, too, for the Congress in Washington still backing and filling after months of delay over a campaign reform bill. Despite all the scandalous revelations about the debauchery of the Nixon '72 campaign with big money, the House is still tinkering with a pitifully inadequate bill. Shot full of loopholes it would be no reform at all. The Senate has already passed a comprehensive campaign reform measure.

WHETHER anything will finally come out of the laggard Congress getting at the most shameful aspect of Watergate is uncertain. Rep. Wayne Hayes, D., Ohio, author of the House bill, rose on the floor to denounce John Gardner of Common Cause as a "common crook."

The California law requires the disclosure of anyone contributing more than $50 to a statewide campaign. Lobbyists are now prohibited from spending more than $10 a month on any legislator. That would fall short of one of those three-martini lunches freely dispensed in the past. Small wonder then that the powerful lobbies did their best to defeat Proposition 9. It was opposed by both the AFL-CIO and the state Chamber of Commerce.

The new law does not take effect until after the first of next year. This raises an interesting question about the election coming up in November.

The Republican candidate, Houston Flournoy, presently state controller, opposed Proposition 9. The Democrat, Edmund G. Brown, Jr., supported it and thereby lost the backing of the AFL-CIO. Flournoy has approached Brown to propose that they agree on a spending ceiling and that is now being worked out.

Under consideration is a limit of $1,300,000. This would be roughly equivalent to nine cents for every registered voter in the state, the limit that would apply under the new law. Whether Flournoy's wealthy backers who put so much into his primary campaign will be restrained by the voluntary ceiling is likely to be tested in the fall.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars. TUESDAY, JULY 1

ARIES

(March 21 to April 20)

Do not let overoptimism lead you into making poor investments. In fact, it would be a mistake to make any drastic changes in your financial program at the moment.

TAURUS

(April 21 to May 21)

You should be full of bright ideas now; ready, willing and able to carry them out. Fine stellar influences stimulate ambitions and incentive.

GEMINI

Sidestep deceptive persons and unsavory ventures. You could run into both now. Make your bid for gains and advancement only through best use of your talents, convincing presentation.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Some extraordinary offerings for the taking. Avoid unruly emotions or notions. This day calls for your dependability and ambition.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A mixed kind of day in terms of work. Your ideas are good, but you can meet with obstacles. There may be more to do than you expected. Take all in stride.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Real problems are likely to be confused with imaginary ones: Look thoroughly over your schedule and weed out nonessentials. Personality

The new dispensation in California will work profound changes on the money-in-politics system so long prevailing in this affluent state. But it is no cure for the deadliest enemy of all. That is the apathy and cynicism so evident in the primary campaign. With 17 Democratic candidates only 47 per cent of eligible voters went to the polls.

As the push for the campaign reform law showed, millions of citizens want something better. Whether they will get it in the campaign to come with the sahrow of Watergate and the Nixon scandals dominating the political landscape is doubtful.

conflicts should not deter good efforts.

Warehouse fire brings evacuation

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Heavy rain helped to wash out fumes from a million-dollar chemical-warehouse fire Sunday that forced authorities to seek evacuation of from 5,000 to 6,000 persons, fire officials said.

Hours after the blaze was controlled, city officials still were warning that elderly residents with respiratory ailments and babies should stay out of an area from five to six blocks around the smoldering Universal Coop building.

Fumes from burning fungicides and farm fertilizers were not toxic, however, authorities said.

Officials took to the airwaves Sunday evening to warn residents north of the burning warehouse to leave their homes as high winds spread fumes and sparks. A shift in the wind to the south gave authorities more anxious moments later in the night.

One fire fighter was admitted to the hospital and 12 were treated for smoke inhalation. Hospital officials said more firemen were expected.

No other injuries were reported. Firemen from five towns fought the blaze for two hours before bringing it under control at about 10 p.m. The fire was reported after a thunderstorm passed through the city, and some officials said the Coop may have been struck by lightning.

WASHINGTON REPORT

From

WILLIAM H. HARSHA
Representative To Congress
6th District, Ohio

Several years ago, there was a book published about a tiny mythical kingdom which decided to wage war on the United States. The reasoning behind this somewhat suicidal plan was that the little country would, of course, lose the war. The defeat, however, would actually be a victory since the rulers of the kingdom figured rather accurately that Uncle Sam would pump millions of dollars in foreign aid into the defeated country to rebuild it. In the long run, then, the country would be far better off than it was in the first place. The book, "The Mouse That Roared," was written as a political satire. It would have been a lot funnier to me, if the story line were not so close to the truth.

In reality, the roots and causes of war are far deeper than just receiving aid from the U.S. once the conflict is over. Yet, since World War II, American aid to defeated countries, such as Germany and Japan, has helped these nations to build some of the strongest economies in the world. At the same time, the drain on the U.S. Treasury and our balance of payments as well as the spending trend set has helped to bring us into one of the worst periods of inflation we have ever encountered in peacetime.

Now, we are getting into even riskier business: that of aiding countries involved in wars with each other in hopes of settling the dispute. My case in point is the Mideast. In an earlier report, I registered my strong objections to aid to the Arab countries. I am as equally opposed to the multi-billion dollar aid program promised Israel by the Administration.

LENDING MONEY to one country for humanitarian and defense purposes is one thing. Outright grants which do not have to be repaid is another — particularly with the highly volatile situation existing in the Mideast. The horrible attacks and reprisals on both sides are still going on, leading me to believe we are still light years away from any lasting settlement to the centuries-old hostilities. Under these circumstances, I do not think it is wise or possible to buy peace by promising money we neither have nor can afford to spend.

The more money we give to these embattled countries — and it actually makes no difference for what purpose — the more leeway we give them to use their own resources for military and probably combat purposes. That is one of the major and very dangerous fallacies in our checkbook diplomacy.

In this case, where we are supposedly going to assist both sides, we are placing ourselves in a most precarious position. Israel, suffering from one of the worst rates of inflation because of the war, has previously received most of its aid from the United States in the form of loans. Now, however, the billions of dollars proposed in aid to this country would be largely in the form of grants. And the figures keep growing on how much that country will need to maintain its defenses. Since the Six Day War in 1967, Israel has become more and more dependent on the U.S. and it is estimated that now, even if we give Israel $2 billion a year for the next four years, that country would still need another $2 billion a year to stay solvent.

If we start giving that kind of money to Israel each year, I wonder how long it will be before the Arab countries scheduled for our foreign aid will be asking for a more equitable share of billion dollar annuities. We've already promised them nuclear power, and I shudder over what will happen to the mini-arms race the U.S. and Russia have been financing in the Mideast when nuclear weapons emerge there as they surely must.

Supposedly, these little promises — both emptying the pocketbook and jeopardizing the security of the American taxpayer — are offers of good faith to lead the warring factions to serious peace negotiations. Both go far beyond what is expected of the mediating role we should be playing in this conflict. We cannot mend the world problems with our battered dollar. We have more than enough "patching up" to do at home.

12 persons killed in Ohio accidents

By The Associated Press

Four pedestrians were among the 12 persons who lost their lives in weekend traffic accidents across the state, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported.

One of the victims was a nine-month-old baby boy who was killed Sunday in a two-car accident on a Wood County road, the patrol said.

The dead:

SUNDAY

MT. GILEAD — Marvin Miller, 18, and Douglas Hoffman, 15, both of Galion, in a two-car collision on Ohio 61 in Morrow County.

BOWLING GREEN — Reynaldo S. Mauricio, Jr., 9 months old, of Pemberton, in a two-car accident on a Wood County road.

BROOKSIDE — Steve Farrier, 64, of Shadyside, in a two-car collision on I-70 in Belmonte County, west of Brookside.

NAPOLÉON — Ethel Sager, 80, of Liberty Center, in a two-car collision on Ohio 424, east of Napoleon.

SATURDAY

SANDUSKY — Susan Castile, 17, of Sandusky, hit by a car on a city street.

CINCINNATI — Stephen C. Devore, 18, of Hamilton, struck while walking on I-75 near Cincinnati.

NEWTON FALLS — Edward L.

U.S. moon team to be reunited

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Neil Armstrong will be reunited with astronauts Edwin Aldrin and Michael Collins on Tuesday in a commemoration of the fifth anniversary of the first moonwalk.

Armstrong, mission commander and the first man to set foot on the moon; Aldrin, who also explored the moon; and Collins, who circled the moon in the Apollo 11 mother ship, will arrive at Cape Canaveral tonight.

The ceremonies will be held at the press site for Launch Complex 39, which will be dedicated as a national historic landmark.

The excitement of the rocket's liftoff at 9:32 a.m. July 16, 1969, was followed by the dramatic moment on July 20 when Armstrong climbed down the ladder of the moonship to make the first human footprints on the dust of the moon.

Watergate committee dies; corruption hit

By MIKE PUTZEL

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Watergate committee, which exposed the dimensions of the nation's greatest political scandal, is dead.

The seven-man panel — officially named the Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities — expired over the weekend with the release of its 2,215-page final report detailing "one of America's most tragic happenings."

The mountains of documentary and testimonial evidence collected during the committee's 16 months of active investigation have been stored on computer tape and will be the panel's principal survivors — the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment inquiry and the Special Watergate Prosecution Force.

The aftermath of the June 17, 1972, break-in at Democratic national headquarters in the Watergate, the committee said, was "characterized by corruption, fraud and abuse of official power."

As preventive medicine, the members unanimously recommended a massive overhaul of federal election laws, creation of a permanent independent prosecutor's office and specific limits on a president's power to violate a citizen's privacy without due process.

The report summarized the abuses uncovered in nationally televised hearings last year and officially presented the panel's findings in its investigation of various campaign financing activities and misuse of government power for political purposes.

Although virtually all of the final report had been made public or leaked to the press in various forms, the official document eliminated most of the conclusions drawn by the committee staff when drafting the report's 11 separate sections.

"There are two ways to prove a horse is a horse," said the committee chairman, self-styled "old country lawyer" Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C. "One way is to draw a picture of a horse in as much detail as possible. The other is to draw the picture and write under it, 'This is a horse.'"

In the Watergate break-in and cover-up section of the report, the committee wove together the testimony of John W. Dean III and the White House-edited transcripts of President Nixon's Watergate conversations to show that a massive conspiracy to obstruct justice reached the highest levels of government.

While steering clear of judging allegations that the President raised milk-support prices in exchange for campaign contributions from milk producers, the panel said administration officials "provided circumstances that were ripe for abuse."

And although it charged no illegality in the financial affairs of Nixon friend C.G. "Bebe" Rebozo, the report traced nearly $5,000 in 1968 campaign funds from Rebozo to a New York jeweler

European Community, comes as U.S. milk output still is staggering from last year's 3.6 per cent decline. Although experts say there is a possibility of recovery late this year, they predict total 1974 output will be down again by 1 to 1½ per cent from 1973.

Meantime, the department's Foreign who supplied Mrs. Nixon's 60th birthday present from her husband, a pair of diamond earrings.

The committee proposed 37 reforms designed to prevent future Watergates.

"Probably the most significant reform that could emerge from the Watergate scandal," the committee said, would be creation of a non-partisan Federal Elections Commission with power to investigate campaign abuses and enforce election laws.

The proposed seven-member commission, to be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate, would be given authority to levy civil penalties of up to $10,000 for election law violations and could refer apparent criminal acts to the proposed public prosecutor's office.

Noting that special prosecutors were named to investigate both the Teapot Dome and Watergate scandals, the Senate panel suggested that a similar position be created as a permanent deterrent to official misconduct.

The Office of Public Attorney, the report said, would serve not only as a special prosecutor "but an ombudsman having power to inquire into the administration of justice in the executive branch." The committee suggested the public attorney be appointed to a five-year term by three retired U.S. Circuit Court judges selected by the chief justice of the United States.

To prevent future "Plumbers'" operations, the committee would bar the president from establishing any special intelligence-gathering group without congressional consent. And laws guaranteeing the confidentiality of individuals' tax returns would be extended to prohibit anyone in the Executive Office of the President from gaining access to Internal Revenue Service files on private citizens. But the tax returns of the president and vice president would be made public.

Other recommendations would limit the use of cash or "big money" in political campaigns, prohibit campaign dirty tricks and increase congressional vigilance over executive departments.

Soviet wheat crop good

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prospects for the Soviet Union to harvest another bumper crop of winter wheat are good, the Agriculture Department said today.

The Foreign Agricultural Service said a recent visit of a U.S. team to the Soviet winter wheat area confirmed earlier predictions that 1974 output may equal or exceed last year's harvest.

"In 1973, winter wheat yields averaged 40 bushels per acre for a total production of about 49 million metric tons (about 1.8 billion bushels)," the agency said. "The USSR expects better yields and higher output this year."

Engaged

MISS SHARRON K. HALLIDAY

Mrs. Felix S. Halliday, 557 Albin Ave., is announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Sharron Kay to John E. Meighan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Meighan of Staten Island, N.Y.

Miss Halliday, also the daughter of the late Mr. Halliday, received a bachelor of science degree from Ohio State University and is presently teaching physical education at Orient State Institute. Her fiancé received a bachelor of arts and master's degrees from Morehead State University, Morehead, Ky., and will receive a doctorate degree from OSU in August.

The wedding will be an event of Sept. 28 in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Garden Club meets in Wilson home

The Washington Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson, when 12 members answered roll call by naming something she would like to suggest for a program topic next year.

Mrs. Donald Meredith, Fayette County contact chairman, reported on the Fayette County workshop held at the Fish and Game Lodge Association recently, when Mrs. Howard Junk of Frankfort was guest speaker.

Mrs. Jean Craig reported on Nature Camp that she had attended at Camp Wakatonika in Knox County and also brought pamphlets on 'Materials for Mulching' for club members. Mrs. Claud Davis, Mrs. K.F. Bartlett and son, Bryan, also attended. Fair books were distributed and each member selected her own flower arrangement to be made for the Fair. The Washington Club is to have the horticulture exhibit.

Final plans for a club yard sale will be made at the next meeting. Farmer's Day was discussed and the club will have table 12 near the court house. A workshop will be conducted July 18 in the home of Mrs. Eugene Cook.

Mrs. William Summers presented the program on 'Cutting and Growing Flower Specimens' for the Fair. She stated that a good judge determines what a good specimen is by the use of a score card: form of a flower - 15 points, substance of flower - 15, color - 10, size of flower - 15, foliage - 25, and stem - 20. Good form means that the flower is at its most nearly perfect stage, typical of type and variety, she said, and the flower should be gracefully shaped, petals symmetrically arranged and the outline regular and pleasing. The center of the flower should be well developed, but usually not opened enough for the disc to show.

Mrs. Summers also told members that a good specimen must give every indication of being fresh, not soft or old. Petals should be crisp, not bruised and have a good keeping quality. She also said the color should be brilliant, clear, and pure. There should be no sun burning or fading of bloom. Color does not mean 'what color' but rather the clearness of the color and whether or not the color is correct for the variety. The specimen should be typical for variety. Grotesque over size as well as undersize, would deduct points.

All foliage on the stem should be present, have good color, normal size and be in good condition. There should be no tears, bruises or evidence of spray or dust. The stem should be in good proportion to the bloom, straight and strong enough to hold the bloom upright. Evidence or recent disbudding or disfiguring methods is deducted under stem.

Nine-tenths of blue ribbons will be due to good soil and culture. The other 10 per cent to the variety and that special touch, or loving care.

Mrs. Summers told members to take a pail of warm water to their flower gardens, when cutting flowers. Place the stems in three to four inches of water, and cut early in the morning or late in the afternoon.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Jean Craig. Three-d plaques made by Mrs. Wilson were favors for each present. Mrs. Orville Hurtt and Mrs. Summers were winners of a flower contest and Mrs. Bud Hooks was also a prize winner.

The next meeting will be at 6:30 a.m. Aug. 6 in Eyman Park, when Mrs. T.N. Willis will have the program on "Less Common Spring Flowering Bulbs."

Baptist Women have picnic

The Women's Missionary Society of First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Albert Caplinger for the annual picnic. Mrs. John Baker, president, opened the business meeting with the reading, "Contentment."

The program included reports by those who attended the Ohio Baptist Women's Conference at Otterbein College in Westerville.

Mrs. Russell Moore and Mrs. Baker, who attended one day, reported on the work shops they attended and Mrs. Charles Hurtt and Mrs. Caplinger reported on the speakers and missionaries which they had heard. The principal speakers were the Rev. and Mrs. John Marshall, missionaries working in Zaire in Africa.

New officers were installed by Mrs. Hurtt, and Mrs. Caplinger was in charge of the closing.

Tina M. Marshall is nine years old

Tina Marie Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall, 2210 U.S. Rt. 22NW, was guest of honor at a birthday party given by her parents at their home on Saturday. Tina Marie was nine years old. The patio was decorated with a yellow and white theme. Each small guest was presented a favor to take home.

Games were the entertainment and pictures were taken.

Guests present for the party were Candy and Cindy Carr, Tami Gall, Lori Tyler, Christine Karfil, Julie Beth Crabtree, Kimmy Kay Havens, Jenny Wilson, Melissa and Melinda Hencil, and Tina Marie's brother, P.R. Marshall.

Mrs. Orville C. Jenkins and her great-niece Miss Sue Zarik of Chicago, Ill., have returned from a trip to Germany where they visited relatives and toured interesting places such as old castles and cathedrals. They also spent several days in Austria and France.

MR. and MRS. ROGER D. LARKINS

Miss Moore is bride of Roger D. Larkins

The Church of Christ in Christian Union was the setting June 30 for the marriage of Miss Marilyn E. Moore and Roger D. Larkins.

A vase of daisies and gladioli graced the altar for the ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Moore Sr., 514 Gregg St., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Larkins of 634 Yeoman St.

The Rev. Robert Kline officiated. Mr. Garrel B. Leasure, organist, presented a prelude of wedding selections.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Moore wore an A-line gown of white cotton polyester trimmed in white lace with long flowing train edged in ruffled lace. The long pointed sleeves were fitted, and the neckline was low. Her illusion veil was held by a cluster of petals and she carried a cascade of white carnations, baby's breath and greenery, with satin streamers. The bride made her gown and those of her attendants.

Beth Ann Moore was maid of honor for her sister. She wore an A-line dress of blue cotton polyester with green floral background, trimmed in blue floral trim. The little flower girl, Bonnie Lou Moore, also wore a dress identical to that of the maid of honor.

Deanna K. Ramsey presided at the guest book.

Robert Fulz served as best man. Seating the wedding guests were James Moore and Norman R. Moore Jr.

Mrs. Moore chose for her daughter's wedding a pink A-line dress with white background with which she combined matching beads and earrings. The groom's mother wore a pink two-piece knit dress with white accessories. Hostesses for the reception which followed in the home of the bride's parents were Mrs. Norman Moore Jr., Mrs. J. James Moore, Mrs. Franklin Kingery, Mrs. Max Jones, Mrs. Ted Baker and Mrs. Larry Kokonougher. The bride's table held a two-tiered wedding cake trimmed in blue carnations and white bells.

The new Mrs. Larkins, a graduate of Washington Senior High School, is a secretary at Barhart Oil Company here. Her husband, a graduate of McClain High School, is self employed at Larkin's Arco station.

The couple is residing at 329 East St. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Larkins, were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at the Washington Inn for the bridal party.

Jeffersonville Inn is setting for Class of 1959 reunion

The 1959 class of Jeffersonville held their 15 year reunion at the Jefferson Inn in Jeffersonville on July 13th from 6:30 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Members enjoyed the social hour before the dinner around the punch table and a table set up of old school pictures and school mementos.

After the smorgasbord dinner their was a brief meeting and then each introduced himself and told who they married and how many children they had and their line of work. Gifts were given to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fannin (newest baby), Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pettit (newest married), Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hopkins (driving the longest distance) and to Miss Pat McDonald the one with the most money-that is the one that never married).

A table was set up with a punch bowl, decorated cookies, candles and streamers all in the class colors of orchid and lavender and a bud vase held the class flower, a white rose.

Twenty-five members out of the class of 53 enjoyed dancing and visiting.

Members of the class that sent letters were: Sharon (Cline) East, Richard Matthews, John Ritenour, Lara Faye (Wolfe) Snyder, Iris (Newell) Lowe, Wilma (Sevmour) Lowe.

Members attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bentley (Janie Jordan), Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cline, Mrs. and Mrs. Jim Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Dun (Sue McDonald), Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deweese, Pat and Dale Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fannin, Vonda (Hall) Kesner, Mr. and Mrs. David Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuehne (Sue Stephenson) Mrs. and Mrs. Warren Todd (Mary Ann Creamer), Donna and Maurus Mollay, Miss Pat McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Herdman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mathews (Sandy Lane), Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pettitt, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hopkins (Shirley Pollock), Mr. and Mrs. Kent Self, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith (Pat Stoddard) Mr. and Mrs. Claude Keim (Virginia Williams).

Class officers are: President Jim Cook, Vice president, Mrs. Dale Evans (Pat Sears); secretary, Mrs. Alan Bentley (Janie Jordan); treasurer, Mrs. Glenn Smith (Pat Stoddard); hostess, Mrs. Vic Dunn (Sue McDonald) and host Mr. Larry Carman.

The longest animal ever recorded is the giant jellyfish (Cyanea arctica), which is found in the northwest Atlantic Ocean. One specimen washed up on the coast of Massachusetts, in 1865, had a bell 7½ feet in diameter and tentacles measuring 120 feet.

CAROL MILLER'S FRESH PEACH FUZZ

A friend, now living in New York, brought this delicious drink from Georgia.

6-ounce can frozen pink lemonade
Gin
Juice and pulp of 1 fresh lime
2 teaspoons grenadine syrup
2 medium or 4 small ripe peaches, rinsed but not peeled
1 tray ice cubes, coarsely crushed

Turn the undiluted lemonade into an electric blender; fill the lemonade can with gin (¾ cup) and add with the lime and grenadine. Quarter peaches and remove pits; add peaches and ice. (For the ice, we used a rectangular 10½ by 4 inch tray that makes 20 ice cubes and froze 2 cups water in it.) Blend until snowlike consistency but don't worry if mixture liquidizes entirely. Serve at once. Makes about 1 quart. For a stronger drink, stir in chilled gin to suit your taste.

Claim Nixon, Kissinger still close

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon is described by a White House spokesman as continuing to have a "good and sound" relationship with Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who will fly here later this week for meetings with Nixon.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler sought Sunday to dispel any notion of a rift between Nixon and Kissinger over the 1969-71 wiretapping of 17 officials and newsmen.

"The relationship between the President and Dr. Kissinger is good and sound as it has been," said Ziegler.

The press secretary confirmed Nixon has written a letter to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee taking full responsibility for the taps, which reportedly were intended to plug news leaks. Ziegler declined to make public the text of the letter.

At an emotional news conference last month in Salzburg, Austria, Kissinger threatened to resign unless a committee investigation cleared him of any taint of wrongdoing in connection with the wiretaps.

The President met for 55 minutes Saturday with Vice President Gerald R. Ford who later told a reporters that impeachment was never discussed in six meetings he had last week with Nixon.

Responding to a question, Ford predicted again that the House Judiciary Committee will vote for Nixon's impeachment but said the full House will vote against impeachment.

With the Supreme Court soon to rule on whether Nixon must surrender additional Watergate tapes to special prosecutor Leon Jaworski, Ford said he assumes any citizen would obey a decision of the high court. White House spokesmen have declined to say what course Nixon might take.

Grievances eyed in strike talks

LORDSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—About 4,000 open grievances and 41 local contract issues were to be on the table this morning when talks began again between General Motors Corp. and striking United Auto Workers.

The president of Local 1112, Marlin Ford, said negotiations on Sunday produced very little progress. The talks broke off after about two and a half hours.

Three issues were resolved, he said.

Marysville Prison 'home' for woman

MARYSVILLE, Ohio (AP)— Her supervisors say 88-year-old Anna Szenan could not adjust to community life, so she's stayed in the only home she's known for the last 44 years—the Ohio State Reformatory for Women in Marysville.

The Hungarian native, who is Ohio's oldest female prison inmate, originally was sentenced in October, 1929 on a second-degree murder conviction in Cleveland.

She was paroled four times between 1938 and 1941, but has not been released since she was last returned July 5, 1942.

Superintendent Dorothy Arn said Anna did not violate the conditions of her parole, she asked to be readmitted to the reformatory because she did not adjust to her new surroundings.

"Leave me alone, this is my home," officials said she told parole authorities at her last meeting with them.

Mrs. Arn said Anna, officially known as 3810, has maintained perfect work records over the years. She said until recently Anna mostly tended the gardens and yards at the prison and served as a matron.

"Annie always had a beautiful garden," she said.

"She's completely content," Mrs. Arn added. "She goes about her business and stays in her yard at Washington Cottage without bothering anyone."

In 1934, Anna asked for a pardon from prison, but not a parole. She contended she did not commit the murder that led to her conviction.

She was born Jan. 1, 1886, in Hungary and has no known living relatives, prison officials said.

The only mail she receives comes from former prison friends and Social Security checks, Mrs. Arn said.

A five-year-old evaluation said her health was failing rapidly, but recent reports show she has no serious medical problems, according to the reformatory.

The only time she visits the hospital is to take flowers to doctors and nurses.

Mrs. Arn says Anna spends time indoors with her cat, Cookie, a replacement for a pet that died after serving as a companion for 14 years.

Vice president notes birthday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford celebrated his 61st birthday with a small dinner party at his home.

About 10 personal friends of the Fords were invited to the Sunday night dinner. The family birthday dinner was delayed until tonight when three of the vice president's four children could be there.

Tiny isle to retain old ways

SARK, Channel Islands (AP) — Michael Beaumont, the new Seigneur of Sark, pledged today to try to keep his tiny Channel Island a trouble-free 19th century paradise following the death of the Dame of Sark.

"The last thing I want to do is drag the island into the 20th century," he declared.

Beaumont, 47, became the ruler of Britain's smallest and oldest dependency on the death Sunday of his grandmother, the legendary Dame Sybil Hathaway. She was the 21st in the line of seigneurs, though being a woman her title was La Dame.

Dame Sybil, 90, ruled the tiny island off the Normandy coast for 47 years, shunning Nazi occupation forces, automobiles, labor unions, divorce and income, cigarette and liquor taxes. She insisted on keeping it "a place of peace and quiet" for the 600-person population and the 50,000 tourists the isle attracts annually.

Beaumont said he will quit his $14,400-a-year job as a design engineer with the British Aircraft Corp., and move his family from Bristol, England, to the 12-bedroom Seigneurie on the island.

Sark is 3½ miles long and 1½ miles wide. Queen Elizabeth I granted it to Helier de Carteret, the first seigneur, in 1563 with instructions to populate it. There is a 52-member local legislature called the Chief Pleas. But the seigneur is the final local authority and is answerable only to Queen Elizabeth II and her Privy Council.

There is hardly any crime. Divorces are not granted, and the only motorized vehicles are the tractors on some farms and the electric wheelchair the Dame permitted herself in recent years because of arthritis. But there are telephones and electricity.

Only the Dame could keep a bitch so that the island would not be overrun by dogs. Only she could mill corn. She could also call on every male islander over 16 to work two days a year on the few miles of roads.

"If I'm a dictator, I'm certainly a benevolent one," she once said. "I prefer to regard myself as head of one big happy family with the queen as my overlord."

She was married twice — to Dudley Beaumont, who died in 1918, and in 1929 to Robert Hathaway, an American. When the Germans occupied the Channel Islands during World War II, they imprisoned Hathaway in Germany for more than 2½ years, but the Dame refused to collaborate. Hathaway died in 1954.

Firm to design CUS building

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) — Central State University's board of trustees named an architectural firm to design a new administration building last week.

The administration building was one of a number of structures on the campus destroyed when a tornado touched down April 3.

The new administration building is scheduled for completion in the fall of 1975.

The Dutch scholar Erasmus, who died in 1536, said a really well-mannered caller kissed his host, hostess, all the children and the dog and cat.

Link solvent to illness

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio health officials admit it is not an "airtight case," but they say evidence points to a solvent used in ink as the cause of a nerve illness that afflicted several workers at the Columbus Coated Fabrics Plant.

The chemical is methylbutyl ketone (MBK), a solvent used to thin and clean ink from surfaces, officials said.

Dr. Donald Billmaier, chief of the department's occupational health division, said "it's not a 100 per cent airtight case, but you could hardly ask for stronger evidence that MBK is the cause."

At least eight employees suffered partial paralysis, and up to 100 others were affected by the ailment, identified as peripheral neuropathy.

The plant was closed temporarily last fall while union and state health investigators searched for the cause of the illness.

Homicide probed east of Hamilton

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Police were still investigating the death of Ruth Doench, 73, who was found slain Sunday in her rural home east of Hamilton.

The Butler County coroner reported the retired schoolteacher apparently died sometime Saturday night. Police reported no signs of forced entry into the house, and only the room where the body was discovered was ransacked.

Henley case arguments being heard

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Prosecution and defense lawyers present final arguments today in the Houston mass murders trial of 18-year-old Elmer Wayne Henley.
The case then is expected to go to the six-man, six-woman jury.
Testimony ended Friday after the state presented 25 witnesses over a five-day period. The defense rested without putting a single witness on the stand.
District Court Judge Preston Dial will instruct the jury, which must decide Henley's culpability in each of the six murders with which he's charged.
If the jury finds him guilty, a hearing will be held to present evidence about Henley's character. Defense lawyers say this could take a week. The jury then would retire again to debate punishment.
Prosecutors will ask that Henley, if found guilty, be sentenced to 99 years in prison on each count.
Henley was arrested last Aug. 8 after he phoned police in the Houston suburb of Pasadena and told them he had shot and killed Dean A. Corll, 33, identified by police as the leader of a homosexual-torture ring that was responsible for the deaths of 27 young boys. That shooting later was ruled self defense.
Another youth, David Owen Brooks, 19, is charged in four of the slayings. No trial date has been set for Brooks.

Circleville resident held for robbery

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — A Circleville, Ohio man sought in connection with a June 19 robbery of an Ashland bank has been arrested in a downtown motel, FBI agents and Ashland police said.
They identified the suspect as Robert Stevens, 38, one of three men indicted in Lexington last Thursday with the $38,000 robbery of the branch bank.
Stevens also is charged with kidnapping in connection with the abduction of Everett Hutchinson of Wilson Creek shortly after the robbery. Stevens allegedly forced Hutchinson to drive him to Circleville.

Major bills due for House action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress appears ready to approve this week a long-disputed bill that would create an independent government corporation to provide legal services to the poor.
In the House, the Judiciary Committee is in the final stages of the evidence-taking phase of its inquiry into whether President Nixon should be impeached.

The Senate has a light agenda, but two major bills are due for House action this week. One would impose strict controls on strip mining; the other would provide financial assistance to the livestock industry.

The legal-services bill has been hung up for months because of opposition from conservatives, who see the program as government-financed social reform.

The logjam was broken — at least temporarily — last week when backers of the bill agreed to drop a provision financing so-called back-up centers, which provide research for lawyers for the poor and help them prepare lawsuits against industry and the government.

In exchange for that agreement, sponsors say they were assured President Nixon would sign the bill.

But backers agree there is the chance the agreement could fall apart as the compromise bill goes back before the House and Senate.

The bill would transfer the legal-services program from the now-defunct Office of Economic Opportunity to a corporation with 11 directors named by Nixon.

Heading Tuesday's House calendar is a bill authorizing the federal government to guarantee up to $2 billion of loans for livestock producers damaged by a cost-price squeeze.

The Senate passed a similar bill last month, but it has no over-all ceiling.

Both houses would limit an individual to $350,000 in loan guarantees.

The Senate also has passed a strip-mining bill. But it differs from the House measure in that the latter would impose a fee on strip-mined coal to pay for restoring abandoned mining sites.

Rep. Morris K. Udall, R-Ariz., prime sponsor, of the House bill, conceded the fee would be passed along to consumers in the form of higher electric bills.

U.S. sub strength kept low?

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has made a secret agreement with Soviet Communist Chief Leonid Brezhnev to keep the number of U.S. nuclear submarines at its present level of 41, according to Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash.

Jackson, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Arms Control, said Sunday the agreement was contained in a letter Nixon wrote to Brezhnev. The senator said the letter and a second document, which he did not identify, will support his charges that the Nixon administration has made secret protocols to the SALT I agreement on nuclear arms limitation signed in Moscow July 24, 1972.

The letter and the second document probably will be turned over to Jackson's panel this week by the White House, the senator said on the NBC program "Meet the Press."

Jackson charged in June the "secret clarification" of the SALT I pact gave the Russians 70 more sub-based missiles than the 950 total missile strength allowed in the published treaty. He said this "secret clarification clearly required congressional approval," which was not obtained.

Malek has top picture R-H takes honors in photo contest

One-half of the 14 places awarded in the black and white photograph category of the 1974 Fayette County Fair photography competition were captured by employees of The Record-Herald, including the "best of show."

In color slide competition, John Halliday and Howard Miller each took three of the eight division championships, with Halliday winning "best of show."

The top black and white photo was entered by George Malek, Record-Herald reporter-photographer. Entered in the portrait division, the print showed his wife's grandfather seated in a rocking chair before a living room window. The picture, by coincidence only, closely resembled the scene depicted in last year's winning photo, which was taken by R-H staffer Ed Summers. Malek also had a fourth in the general pictorial division.

Mark Thellman of the R-H took first place among the nature pictures, third in the general pictorial, and third in the portrait competition.

Record-Herald staffer Ed Summers took the top prize in pictures of last year's Fair. Rick Binzel was second in the division. In addition to the top place, Summers, who is working while home from school for a few months, garnered a second in the portrait category.

Clair J. Millard, who recently left the R-H advertising staff, captured the other first place, general pictorial. He was followed by Don Turner, who also had a fourth in the portraits.

Tim Carson followed Thellmann in the nature competition, with Binzel taking third and David Foster, fourth. Entries in the black and white photography far outnumbered that of recent years.

COLOR SLIDE honors were captured by local buffs John Halliday and Howard Miller.

Halliday took the best of show entry with his slide of two persons silhouetted on a hillside by the burning setting sun, which was the top entry in the general category. Halliday also captured tops in nature photos in photos at night. He took seconds in portraits and abstracts.

Miller topped the portraits, people at work and children's photo, took second in fair pictures, and had thirds in the general pictorial and pictures at night.

Susan Rockhold captured a first in pictures of the Fayette County Fair, and added thirds in nature and children.

Bill Malone took first place in the abstract and experimental category.

Tom Payton took two thirds and a fourth; Dr. Warren Craig, a second and a fourth; Dr. and Mrs. James Rose combined for a second and a fourth; Tony Perone, two fourths; Tim Carson, Jane Rankin, and Neil Rowland each captured a third; and David Foster, Jim Meyer and Horace Jacobs each took a fourth place.

HAND IN HAND — Former presidential assistant John D. Ehrlichman holds the hand of his wife, Jean, as they leave the District of Columbia Court of Appeals after he was found guilty of conspiracy and perjury in the White House plumbers trial.

Preparing of Fairground roads on work schedule

One of the primary responsibilities resting with county road crews this week will be preparing the roads in the Fayette County Fairground for its big week.

Crews will be repairing the pavement of roads in Jefferson and Jasper townships as well as at the Fairground. Drainage work will be done on Old Springfield and Washington-Waterloo roads, and there will be repair of bridges and culverts on New Martinsburg and Ghormley roads, said Charles Wagner, Fayette County engineer.

Bill Duncan, city street superintendent, said that his men will be sealing cracks in street surfaces and will continue painting. City crews will be working at the Eastside ditch, behind the Washington Square Shopping Center, removing the heavy growth.

State crews will be doing berm repair along Ohio 753 and Ohio 38. There is also patching to be done on Ohio 753. If the equipment is available, there will be ditch work done along the CCC Highway. According to Gene Fitzpatrick, Ohio Department of Transportation garage superintendent, trash crew and rest area cleanup teams will be operating all week.

Commissioners ponder bids for new cruiser

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners opened bids for a new Sheriff's cruiser Monday morning, but elected to take no action until Sheriff Don Thompson has had an opportunity to evaluate the bids and offer his opinion.

The high bid from a London firm at $7,300, a second bid was for $6,980 from a dealership in Canal Winchester, and the low bid was from a dealer in Circleville. The low bid was only $6,170, but it quoted price for a 1974 vehicle and stated that any increase for 1975 would have to be reflected in the bid.

Since the commissioners had sought only firm bids, it seems that the dealer's offer cannot be considered. No local firms submitted bids.

The final hearing for the Perrill ditch project began at 11 a.m., but the results of that hearing were unavailable at press time.

Reginald (Chink) Davis, county dog warden, reported investigating 35 reports during the past week.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Welfare says it has recorded an eight-year low for increases in Aid to Dependent Children recipients in fiscal 1974.

Inflation top worry

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Forty-eight per cent of the 1,509 Americans interviewed by the Gallup Poll said they think inflation is the nation's most serious problem.

Six per cent of those interviewed May 31-June 3 gave top priority to the energy crisis. Last January, the energy crisis was listed as the No. 1 problem by 46 per cent.

In the January survey, 25 per cent of the respondents named inflation as their chief concern.

Fifteen per cent of the participants in the most recent poll were more concerned with "dissatisfaction with and lack of trust in government;" 11 per cent listed corruption in government and Watergate as the nation's most serious problem; "crime-lawlessness" and "moral decline-lack of religion" received 4 per cent each; 3 per cent listed "drugs;" 19 per cent listed "other problems" and 4 per cent offered no opinion.

District Demo meet Wednesday

A meeting of the Sixth District Democrat Club will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Terrace Lounge.

Milbourne Barney, chairman of the Fayette County Democratic Executive Committee, has arranged the meeting.

Officers of the district club are Karl Free, Ross County, chairman; Ralph Phillips, Highland County, vice chairman; Louise M. Rodgers, Fayette County, secretary, and Blanche H. Cline, of Highland County, treasurer.

Brawl erupts, Reds-Pirates spit

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Cincinnati's Jack Billingham admitted he purposely tried to brush back Pittsburgh hurler Bruce Kison when he hit Kison with a pitch Sunday to trigger a bench-empting brawl.

"I'd never try to hit somebody, but sometimes you have to get your point across," Billingham said. "He (Kison) got warned by the umpires, but he kept brushing our guys back, so something had to be done."

Reds' manager Sparky Anderson, who was ejected from the game, was asked whether he had ordered Billingham to retaliate.

"Well, I have a policy," he responded. "In a situation like that, you go after the pitcher, the guy who released the ball, not any of the other players."

The incident occurred in the fourth inning of the second game, which Pittsburgh won 2-1 after the Reds took the opener 3-2.

Some players laughed and joked afterward, but Umpire Ed Sudol saw no humor in the brawl, which caused a 20-minute delay in the game.

"They ran out there like animals," said a stern-faced Sudol, who had warned Kison earlier for allegedly throwing at Cincinnati batters.

"It wasn't any joke," he added in the umpires' dressing room. "I don't know how it looked from the stands, but on the field it was no joke."

Sudol warned Kison and fined him $50 after he fired an inside delivery to Reds' shortstop Dave Concepcion in the fourth inning.

"I wasn't trying to hit anybody," Kison said. "I can't help it if my fastball runs inside on right-handed hitters. I have to work the ball in and out to be successful."

When he warned Kison, Sudol also cautioned Anderson that he'd be tossed out if any of his pitchers retaliated and he told Kison and acting Pirate Manager Bob Skinner they'd both be ejected for another brushback.

When Kison was struck on the left forearm in the fourth, Anderson rushed to Sudol to protest his ejection. Players and coaches from both sides circled in the infield, and then came the spark.

"I accidentally stepped on Ed Kirkpatrick's foot, and in all sincerity I have to say Ed just instinctively pushed me back," said Anderson.

"But then my guys went after Kirkpatrick, and the whole thing broke loose," Anderson added.

Mets 4, Dodgers 1

Bud Harrelson, who missed 29 games with a broken bone in his right hand, got an RBI infield single in the fourth inning to give New York its winning run. Cleon Jones later hit a two-run homer. Jon Matlack, who had been cuffed around by San Diego in his last start, checked the Dodgers with a six-hitter.

Braves 7, Cards 0

Phil Niekro cooled off St. Louis with a five-hitter. Dave Johnson smacked a three-run homer and Baker drove in two runs with a first-inning sacrifice fly and a third-inning single off young Ray Bare. Johnson hit his 10th homer off Rich Folkers in the fifth.

Astros 7, Cubs 7

Bob Gallagher's single lifted Houston past the Cubs. Lee May opened the Astros' 12th-inning rally with a single and moved to second on a bunt by Milt May, who was safe at first when Chicago tried for the forceout. One out later, Gallagher singled to right.

Phils 5-7, Giants 2-4

The Phils, with clutch hitting from Willie Montanez and Del Unser, shot into first place by 1½ games in the East with their sweep of San Francisco.

Montanez drilled a bases-loaded two-run single in a three-run eighth inning to give Philadelphia its winning margin in the opener. Unser delivered a three-run homer to start the Phils on their way in the nightcap.

Expos 6-6, Padres 1-2

Ken Singleton hit a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning in the first game and Willie Davis drove in two runs, one of them with a triple to highlight a three-run third inning, in the nightcap, enabling the Expos to sweep past San Diego.

NFL players dispute enters third week

By The Associated Press

If you're looking for a quick settlement to the football strike, maybe you'd better take another look.

The dispute between the National Football League Players' Association and the NFL Management Council is now in its third week, and the two sides do not appear to be any closer together today than when the strike officially started July 1. No progress in negotiations has been announced, and the two sides have not as much as agreed on a date for resuming talks.

The College All-Star Game, the annual summer fixture run by the Chicago Tribune Charities, was canceled due to the dispute, and the next casualty could be the July 27 Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, which kicks off the exhibition season.

But most importantly, NFL veterans—and particularly the league's star players—appear to be quite solid in holding the union line. All around the country, as training camps open, NFLPA picket lines are being set up. And for the most part, the veterans are honoring those lines.

After meeting with both sides last Friday, federal mediator James Searce said he would contact them again early this week to see if they want to resume negotiating.

A number of training camps opened to veterans Sunday, but few players with NFL experience showed up—except to picket. Groups of veterans on many clubs said they hold their own workouts.

No veterans reported to the camps of the Philadelphia Eagles or New York Jets, while the only New York Giant to go to camp was reserve defensive back Honor Jackson and the only Cleveland veteran to report to the Browns' camp was wide receiver Gloster Richardson.

A total of 69 players showed up at the Washington Redskins camp, including nine veterans, but only one of those, Ken Stone, was on the team's active roster last year.

In something of a surprise, 12 Cincinnati veterans arrived at the Bengals' training camp.

Veterans were on picket duty as Detroit Lion rookies gathered at Bloomfield Hills, Mich., as St. Louis Cardinal rookies reported to camp at Normal, Ill., and as Pittsburgh Steeler first-year men showed up at Latrobe, Pa.

There was no picketing at Vero Beach, Fla., when the first 17 rookies reported to the New Orleans Saints' camp, but pickets were expected to be on duty July 20 when veterans were scheduled to arrive.

Miami Dolphins Coach Don Shula, who originally had scheduled veterans to start training Sunday, pushed that reporting day back to Wednesday.

Rob Herron crowned Country Club champ

Just as expected, the quest for the 1974 Club Championship at the

ROB HERRON

Washington Country Club developed into a tight battle between Rob Herron, the 1972 winner, and Gary Shaffer, the 1973 defending champion.

Herron, who is a linkster at Ashland College, clipped Shaffer by three strokes to win this year's title. Herron, who is the son of Robert and Jerelyn Herron, shot rounds of 74 and 75 to take the crown with a total of 149 strokes. In the first round, Herron came through with a pair of 37's. In the second round, he fired a 36 on the front nine and a 39 on the second nine.

Following Shaffer's 152 was Douglas Dye with a 153. Other finishers and their scores were Allen Willoughby, 155; William Junk, 156; Jim Vess, 157; Dr. Robert Hagerty, 158; Dr. Ron Walker, 160; William Mount, 161; Glen Helmick, 162; Don Mahoney, 162; and James Morrison, 162. Other participants who did not finish included Bob Rine, Jim Polk, Paul Johnson, Roger Grimm, Dr. Charles Griffith, Jim Wightman and Jim Walker.

Cincinnati opens camp

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati Bengals head coach and general manager Paul Brown was to begin two weeks of twice-a-day drills today with his skeleton squad of a dozen veterans and 17 rookies.

In Cincinnati, a group of striking players, mostly from the offensive squad, were going to start practicing on their own at the Woodward High School field.

At the Bengals training camp Sunday, Brown addressed the 29-member squad in his annual orientation speech. Later the players were timed in the 40-yard sprints and had in a brief workout under blistering 90-degree weather.

Pat Matson, players representative for the Bengals, said Saturday from his suburban Cincinnati home that the National Football League Players Association doesn't plan to picket the training camp at Wilmington College.

"We feel our best service to the team, the rookies and the school (Wilmington College) is to provide no chance for confrontation," Matson said. "Just by honoring the strike is enough."

Matson said that Ed Garvey, head of the NFLPA, told him Saturday evening that other striking players would not be imported to the Bengals camp to picket despite the fact that a group of Bengals veterans voted 14-2 last week not to picket.

Offensive captain and center Bob Johnson, one of the striking veterans, said he would be with the group working out in Cincinnati. When asked if there were indication more players would be reporting to camp, Johnson said, "I'm sure the question will be raised every day after we practice."

Al Beauchamp, Bengal linebacker among the dozen veterans here, said he expects "more guys to drift in" to camp this week.

Lions Babe Ruth

Girtons captured the Lions Babe Ruth championship with a 12-9 victory over Good Hope, Saturday afternoon. The title was Girtons' third in the last five years.

Kevin Bonecutter paced the winners' hitting attack with a triple and two doubles. Jeff Elliott and Brown each had two hits for Girtons.

Bakenhester homered for the losers. Combs had three hits and Walters doubled.

Shawn Riley was the winning pitcher in the game. The loss was charged to Haines.

The Babe Ruth Minor Tournament opens tonight with Sabina playing the Medics at 4 p.m. The second game will be between Willis and Craigs. Girtons, the league champions, drew a bye and will play the winner of the first game at 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Billy Martin and the umpires didn't see eye to eye Sunday. And as a result, Martin didn't see much of anything, except from the clubhouse.

The unmanageable Texas Ranger manager was thrown out of both games of a doubleheader with the Milwaukee Brewers.

Martin got to see seven innings of the first game, won 9-3 by Milwaukee but was gone after one inning of the nightcap, won 5-4 by Texas.

Home plate umpire Ron Luciano ejected Martin after Pete Broberg's brush-back pitch to George Scott in the seventh inning. A Broberg pitch had decked Milwaukee shortstop Robin Yount an inning earlier.

Before he was decked, Scott drove in five runs with a three-run homer and two doubles to help Milwaukee win the first game.

Tom Grieve hit a home run, lifting Texas to victory in the second game.

White Sox 3, Orioles 1

Bill Melton cracked a two-run homer in the first inning to give Stan Bahnsen and Chicago a victory over Baltimore.

Melton's 12th home run of the season followed a single by Carlos May and came off lefthander Ross Grimsley, 11-8.

Royals 2, Tigers 1

A bases-loaded walk to Hal McRae with two out in the 14th inning gave Kansas City its triumph over Detroit.

Red Sox 3, Angels 0

Luis Tiant pitched a sevenhitter and Rico Petrocelli scored two runs, carrying Boston past California.

Boston jumped on California starter Dick Lange, 3-5, for a run in the second inning on Petrocelli's single to left and a triple to right-center by rookie Tim Lincecum.

In the third, Cecil Cooper walked before Bernie Carbo doubled him home.

A's 7-6, Yanks 3-1

Sal Bando's three-run homer capped a five-run seventh inning that lifted Oakland over New York in the first game of their doubleheader.

Bill North and Bando drilled first-inning home runs, and the A's added four runs in the eighth inning to take the second game.

Sam McDowell, 1-3, had his first pitch blasted by North's third home run of the season. One out later, Bando drilled his 11th homer into the left field bullpen.

A FEW MORE ANSWERS TO A FEW MORE QUESTIONS . . .

DEBIT — An accounting term — in financial language, what a Bank withdraws from an account, savings or checking.

CREDIT — The opposite — what a Bank "adds" to a savings or checking account. But, also what happens to a loan or obligation account when it is reduced in your favor. A "debit" is a minus (-) from your benefit. A "credit" is a plus (+) to your benefit.

DISCOUNT LOAN — When the entire interest charge is deducted from the loaned amount, in advance, at the time you receive the money.

PREFERRED STOCK — Stock that gets paid corporation profits, or assets, before "Common" stock receives any share.

PRINCIPAL — The "actual" amount, not including interest, of money borrowed, deposited, or loaned.

Steve Braun's home run leading off the 10th inning powered Minnesota over Cleveland. Braun hit his fifth home run of the season into the right field seats off Milt Wilcox, 1-1. The blast made a winner of Tom Burgmeier, 3-2.

Player takes British Open

LYTHAM ST. ANNE'S, England (AP) — This place is not very popular with American golfers. It has one of the most famous seaside courses in the world, but no American has won the British Open Championship here for 48 years.

When Jack Nicklaus failed to catch Gary Player Saturday, and the little South African won his third British Open title, the jinx kept its grip.

The last time the championship was staged here was in 1969, when Britain's Tony Jacklin won it. Since then, it has gone around the big courses of England and Scotland, and Americans have chalked up an unbroken string of victories.

Now this taxing course of windswept sand and bushes has beaten the Americans again. Player won with a 72-hole total of 282, Britain's Peter Oosterhuis was second with 286, and Nicklaus, the best of the Americans, finished third at 287.

Johnny Miller, top money winner on the U.S. circuit this year, was one of the Americans whose hopes were shattered among the sandtraps of the inward nine holes. He finished 10th with 294.

"For Americans playing British courses, it is like rolling dice," Miller said. "You can roll them just right, but you don't know what numbers are coming up."

"I made four mistakes in my final round and every mistake cost me either a bogey or a double bogey."

It will be another five or six years before the Americans or anybody get another chance to play the Lytham and St. Anne's jinx.

Player, 37, the most convincing winner of the British Open for years, said the Americans should do better in the future because this championship is now played with a bigger-sized golf ball.

"All pros should play the big ball, even on long, tough and exposed courses like this one," Player said. "The Americans do—and that's why they're so good."

Post 25 drops three weekend games

By LARRY WATTS
Record-Herald Sports Editor

Only those people following Post 25 this past weekend knew for a fact that Washington Court House was indeed playing baseball and not softball, as the scores may have otherwise indicated.

Despite rapping out 36 hits and scoring 26 runs, Court House was on the losing end in three of four games during two weekend doubleheaders. Their opponents, Chillicothe Post 757 and Portsmouth, collected 54 hits and sent 46 runners across the plate.

Saturday's visit to Post 757 found Court House splitting with the league-leader. Post 25 won the first game 12-9 and bowed 3-1 in the nightcap. In Sunday's home doubleheader, Portsmouth humiliated Washington by outscoring the local legionnaires 20-7 and 14-6.

Once again, Post 25 was troubled by poor defense and inconsistent pitching performances. Washington committed 17 errors compared to seven for the opponents in the four games. Greg Cobb turned in the best performance of Post 25's shell-shocked pitching staff. In four innings of relief pitching during the nightcap of the Chillicothe doubleheader, Cobb allowed five hits and two earned runs.

SCOL standings

(League Games Only)

Chill. 757	15-6
Portsmouth	12-7
Hillsboro	11-7
Chill. 62	9-8
Washington C.H.	8-14
Greenfield	0-13

In the first game against Chillicothe, Mark Johnson notched his fourth victory of the season as Randy Reiber and Paul England provided most of the artillery. Johnson was tagged for 12 hits and nine earned runs, but his teammates provided him with enough cushion to allow him to stay on the mound for the entire nine innings.

Reiber smashed a three-run homer in the first inning, as Post 25 took a 4-0 lead. Reiber had three hits in the game and knocked in five runs.

After Post 757 came back to tie the score with four runs in the third frame, Washington put the game out of reach by tallying seven runs and six hits off of three Chillicothe pitchers in the fourth. England, who had two hits and three runs batted-in for the first game, highlighted the seven-run uprising in the second with a double.

Once Washington had built the seven-run lead, Chillicothe would not stop fighting. John Shoemaker led the comeback with a two-run homer in the sixth, but the Court House lead provided to be just too much for Post 757 to overcome.

Saturday's second game proved to be the best contest for pitchers during the weekend. Chillicothe's Doug Bruce went the distance in holding Washington to eight hits. Jeff Green started for Post 25, but arm trouble forced him to yield to Cobb in the top of the third. The two Court House hurlers held the winners to six hits.

Both teams received excellent defensive plays from their infields. Chillicothe, which was led by third baseman B. J. Dailey, shortstop Mark Bayless and Shoemaker at second, turned in two double plays and went errorless in the second game. Post 25's Steve Haines, Mark Scherer and Allan Coppock recorded their third double play of the afternoon in the second game. Post 25 had two errors in the second contest.

Two Post 757 tallies in the third inning decided the nightcap. After Bayless had walked and Shoemaker singled, Scherer bobbled Steve Chester's ground ball to score one run. Dailey knocked in the second with an infield single.

Washington will long remember the day John Newberry and his Portsmouth teammates came to town. Newberry riddled Court House's pitching staff with four home runs and 13 runs batted-in during the doubleheader. Randy Ratcliff added a homer in the first game to bring the total to six circuits yielded by the Washington pitchers over the weekend.

With the aid of a 10-run fifth inning, Portsmouth tagged three Washington hurlers for 22 hits, as the nine inning first game was halted after the seventh frame by the 10-run rule. Dave Bush was the winning pitcher for Portsmouth. Losing pitcher Phil Roll was lifted in the fifth inning after yielding 13 hits and eight earned runs.

Barry Sparks collected five hits and scored four runs in six trips to the plate for Portsmouth in the opener. Ratcliff and Newberry each smashed three hits.

England led Washington's hitting attack with three hits, including a double. England belted in four runs in the first game.

Washington starter Howie Boggs ran into control problems in the second inning of the second contest. Boggs walked in three turns, as Portsmouth erupted for five runs in the second stanza. Before he could be lifted in the fifth frame, Portsmouth had reached Boggs for nine runs, eight of which were earned.

In the second game, Portsmouth smashed 14 hits and took advantage of five Court House errors. The errors brought Washington's total to 11 for the afternoon, as they committed six in the first game.

England had his best weekend of the season, as he collected nine hits in 14 trips to the plate in the four games. He had two doubles, a triple and eight runs batted-in.

Reiber had six hits in 14 plate appearances. With the aid of his home run, he had seven runs batted-in.

Washington's three losses have eliminated them from the South Central Ohio League race. Court House is now 8-14 in the SCOL and 8-15 overall. Chillicothe Post 757 leads the loop with a 15-6 record.

Post 25 is scheduled to face Waverly in a 1 p.m. game, Saturday. The Waverly contest opens the American Legion District Tournament for Court House. The tournament is being held in Hillsboro.

THE MONSTER MASH — Washington first baseman Allan Coppock appears to be teaching catcher Paul England a new dance step in the doubleheader with Portsmouth. Coppock had just finished catching a tough pop-up along the first base line.

$25 DIVIDEND

LIMITED TIME OFFER!

Get your $25 dividend on these

NEW RCA XL-100 100% Solid State Color TVs!

Check these RCA XL-100 features:

XL-100, 100% Solid State reliability.

There are no chassis tubes to burn out, a major cause of TV repairs. Uses less energy, too—27.5% less than comparable RCA tube-type sets.

Pushbutton control of color, tint, brightness and contrast. Automatic Fine Tuning, too!

RCA AccuLine picture tube system for brilliant, sharply detailed pictures, fewer service adjustments.

Sharp definition—brilliant contrast from precision in-line picture tube system. And, RCA's design eliminates 12 dynamic convergence service adjustments which dot-screen portable TVs can require. Yoke is permanently bonded to the tube, can't shift position.

61 fewer parts—61 fewer things to go wrong!

An advanced picture tube system eliminates 61 components required in RCA's comparable conventional color portables.

More TV experts own RCA...

More TV program directors, more TV station chief engineers, more senior TV cameramen and more independent TV service technicians own RCA than any other color TV!

UNIQUE & LOVELY

NATIVE STONE HOME

Twelve big acres with small stream (all in pasture), fronting on U.S. Route, about a mile north of Washington C. H. Plenty of trees. An offering, such as this highly respected country estate, should be given careful study at this time. You could enhance your image on this move up.

There's a large stone, wood-burning fireplace in the carpeted living room; a formal dining room that will make any meal a treat; most up-to-date kitchen; two bedrooms and full bath; plenty of closets all on the first floor. Upstairs you have two very ample sized bedrooms and large storage room, plus more closets, and a half bath. The full basement consists of half bath, oil fired furnace, automatic water softener and conditioner; plus so many extras. Utility buildings are in good state of condition.

If you are in the position and ready to make a move, you will sleep better knowing more concerning this. . . . Priced to sell $49,900 and shown by appointment only.

Opening lead - king of diamonds.

This deal occurred in the 1972 World Olympiad. It was played at 18 tables, and at most of them South got to four hearts and went down one.

This happened when West led the king of diamonds, partner showing out, and continued with the A-Q-J. It is hard to fault those declarers who ruffed the fourth diamond with the king and later lost a trump trick to the jack.

From their viewpoint, after West had shown up with six diamonds and East with none, it

Speaking of Your Health...

Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Rapid Heartbeat: Many Causes

Every once in a while my heart seems to develop a very rapid beat and I have a fluttering sensation in my chest.

I am not a big drinker, but I honestly believe this is related to drinking beer which I do occasionally. Is this possible?

Mrs. T.D., Ill.

Dear Mrs. D.:
The rate of the heartbeat is controlled by a tiny pacemaker. This is not to be confused with the electronic device that is implanted in people whose own pacemaker is not entirely effective.

The heartbeat can be altered or disturbed by drugs, tobacco, caffeine and alcohol.

Emotional disturbances, too, can upset the normal rhythm of the heart.

Tachycardia, the word for a sudden, rapid increase in the rate of the heartbeat, can be frightening, especially if one doesn't understand that it is usually not threatening to life.

You may well have determined the cause of your rapid heart rate. By eliminating beer or other alcoholic beverages you may be freed of this anxiety-producing experience. It certainly is worth trying.

In addition, it would be wise to consult your physician, who can help establish the exact cause.

Youth Activities

GROOVY GROOMERS 4-H
The meeting of the Groovy Groomers 4-H Dog Club was called to order when the group discussed the Fayette County Fair and announced that entries must be made by Saturday, July 13. A picnic is planned for July 18 at the home of Mrs. Carl Wilt I, Lewis Rd., at 5:30 p.m.

Tonya Burnett, reporter

YATESVILLE PRODUCERS
The last meeting of the Yatesville Producers was called to order by Bret Taylor, president. Todd Cook led the pledges. Doug Welsh called the roll and 22 members answered by naming their favorite beverage. Doug then read the minutes. Lisa Cook gave the treasurer's report. Officers books, fair entries, health papers, project books and 25 cents for a fair pass is due, Saturday. There is going to be a show and judging contest Friday and Saturday at the Fairground, and the club will serve at this.

Paula Welsh, Lisa Cook and Sandy Beekman are on a committee to get the food for this. We then filled out evaluation sheets. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the Bakers and Millers.

JR. AMBITIOUS FARMERS
The final meeting of the Junior Ambitious Farmers was opened by president Steve Coe. Roll call was answered with your name, and the 4-H Pledges were led by Kim McIntosh and Steve Coe.

Health reports were given by Mary DeWeese and Stacy Stockwell. Safety reports were made by Melody Woods and Jeff King.

The Junior and Senior Ambitious Farmers went to Kings Island on Thursday, and met at the Jeffersonville School at 1 p.m.

Saturday, July 13, project books are to be turned in at the Mahan Building.

Silver Bridge claims heard

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Trial opened today in the West Virginia Court of Claims in the first two claims stemming from the 1967 collapse of the Silver Bridge at Point Pleasant.

That disaster of Friday afternoon, Dec. 15, claimed the lives of 46 persons when the bridge, loaded down with rush hour traffic, gave way over the Ohio River.

A tribunal of judges will determine during the first two of 56 claims whether the state Department of Highways is liable for damages from the collapse of the state-owned bridge. If the department is found liable, then the remaining proceedings would be restricted to determining the amount of damages to be awarded.

Involved in the first two cases are the estates of Melvin A. Cantrell, for $112,000, and James A. White, for $110,000. All told, the 56 disaster claims total nearly $6.4 million.

Because of the lengthy engineering testimony expected, the trial of the first two cases could last through the summer. The three part-time judges will sit only two or three days a month.

Hearing the case will be newly appointed Judge John B. Garden, a Wheeling attorney; Presiding Judge Henry L. Ducker of Huntington, a former state Supreme Court judge; and Judge W. Lyle Jones of Bridgeport.

Atty. Gen. Chauncey Browning Jr., representing the state, came to an agreement with claimants' attorneys last March to let the first two cases determine the liability issue for all 56 claims.

Should the department be held not liable, that would end the proceedings in all the cases.

West Virginia owned the entire length of the bridge, although its western end was in Ohio and disaster deaths occurred on both sides of the state boundary.

Elect Columbus man Fire Buff president

BOSTON (AP) — A Columbus, Ohio man has been elected president of the International Fire Buff Associates at its 22nd annual convention here.

John Van Dyke was elected Saturday. He is a member of Box 15 Club Inc. in Columbus. The members provide first aid services at fires, fire-fighting where allowed and fire prevention information programs for local fire departments.

Clayton D. Werden Jr., of Cincinnati was elected as a vice president.

The first horseless carriage with a fare meter was built by the Daimler Motor Co. and put on the streets of Stuttgart, Germany, in 1897, according to the National Geographic Society.

Police report no weekend offenses

Deputies probe 3 larcenies

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported an array of weekend offenses involving larcenies, vandalism, conversion of trust incident, property destruction, a missing person and an attempted larceny. Washington C.H. police officers either had a very quiet weekend (they reported no offenses) or Judge Evelyn W. Coffman's gag ruling has prevented the newspaper from finding out what actually happened. The larcenies involved the theft of four horses, two saddles and three bridles from a barn owned by Floyd Bennett, Burr Oaks, located on the Mark Road, at 2 p.m. Friday; a stolen 23-channel citizen's band radio from a car owned by Anna Belle Lands, Mount Sterling, sometime between 11 p.m. Friday and 7:30 a.m. Saturday, while the car was parked at Garner's truck stop, I-71 and U.S. 35; and an assortment of towels and washcloths valued at $8.55, taken from the Dollar Motel in Jeffersonville around noon Sunday.

An attempted larceny was made at Douglas Sunoco, Ohio 38 and I-71, at 9 a.m. Saturday, by vandals who damaged the pop vending machine, but were unsuccessful in opening it. Sheriff's deputies are investigating this and the other larcenies.

A $75 glass door was broken at Garner's Union 76 station, U.S. 35 and I-71, at 2 a.m. Sunday, sheriff's deputies reported.

A conversion of trust was reported by the Fayette County Sheriff's Department when Swanson Mounts, Greenfield, loaned his auto at 9 p.m. Friday, to a person who failed to return it.

Sugar was poured into the oil fill tube of a truck owned by R. E. Youngblood, Ashburn, Ga., sometime between 7 p.m. and 7:45 p.m. Saturday, while the truck was parked at the Fayette County Fairground.

A woman whose husband was last seen Jan. 26, reported him missing to the Sheriff's Department Saturday.

Dennis J. Livernois, Good Hope, is described as being 6 feet two inches in height, 140-150 pounds in weight and having blue eyes and short blond hair. He had been working for the Gooding Amusement Co. in Columbus.

Four persons hurt in rural collision

A rear-end collision in which two persons showed visible signs of injury and two other persons claimed injury, occurred at 2:35 a.m. Sunday on U.S. 22-E, two-tenths of a mile east of Bogus Road, the Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported.

A car driven by William A. Cammett, 17, Mason, struck a car driven by Dorothy Lee Kerns, 23, Greenfield, while the Kerns car was attempting to make a left turn into a private driveway. Cammett was charged by sheriff's deputies with not maintaining an assured clear distance ahead.

Showing visible signs of injury were Cammett and one of his passengers, James C. Elam, 20, Cincinnati, and claiming injury from the mishap were Ms. Kerns and another of Cammett's passengers, Robert F. Dacey, 19, Milford.

Ms. Kerns also had two passengers in her vehicle, but they were uninjured. None of the persons were treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital.

The Sheriff's Department investigated two more accidents Sunday and Washington C. H. police investigated two weekend accidents, one of which resulted in the citing of a Frankfort man for a traffic violation.

A CAR driven by William D. Dalton, 19, Pierson-Octa Road, struck a parked truck owned by Harley A. Mongold, Jeffersonville, at 1:30 a.m. Sunday, sheriff's deputies reported.

Saudi Arabia buys U.S. farm products

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oil rich Saudi Arabia bought about $100 million worth of U.S. farm products in the fiscal year ended June 30, about triple its 1972-73 purchases, and business is expected to continue to improve, the Agriculture Department said.

But other countries are vying strongly for the Arabian food market, particularly in sales of rice, frozen poultry and processed foods, the department's Foreign Agricultural Service said in a weekly publication.

"Underlying the surge in U.S. agricultural exports is the rapid expansion of Saudi Arabia's economy, propelled by an estimated $20 billion in oil export revenues, almost triple the $7 billion of 1973," the report said.

The 1973-74 fiscal year gain for U.S. farm exports to the Arabian market included increased sales of rice, wheat flour and livestock feed. The report's author, John B. Parker of the department's Economic Research Service, said improved per capita incomes can mean further demand for those products.

"The expected improvement in living standards for rural Saudi Arabians will trigger a shift to wheat and rice in diets, as opposed to home-grown millet and sorghum," Parker said. "Progressively, this shift will free more animal feed for the nation's expanding commercial livestock operations."

Although the increase in farm sales to Saudi Arabia last year was spectacular, the market still is not large when compared with U.S. farm exports in other areas of the world. Japan, for example, bought about $3.3 billion worth in the fiscal year just ended.

Hong Kong, another Asian market, purchased about $200 million worth of U.S. farm products in 1973-74, double the sales to Saudi Arabia. And Hong Kong's population is only about two-thirds of Saudi Arabia's six million.

Even so, the expansion of the Saudi Arabian market is encouraging to U.S. officials who see any positive trade development in the Middle East as another signal of stability. Also, the exports help offset U.S. purchases of Middle East oil.

Test-tube conceptions reported

LONDON (AP) — Three normal babies born within the last 18 months are the world's first to have been successfully conceived in test tubes and then placed in the mother's womb to mature, a British gynecology professor said today.

Dr. Douglas Bevis, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Leeds University, said the problem with the technique is preparing the womb so that it will not reject the fertilized egg.

He said the three births had been successful not because of any medical break-through, but because of luck. "So many have been attempted that by the law of averages some have come through," he said.

Bevis would not name the families or the doctors involved, but said at least one of the babies was born in Britain. He said none of them have any apparent abnormalities.

The technique involves taking a number of eggs from a woman who cannot have children normally because her fallopian tubes leading from the ovaries to the womb are damaged.

The eggs are placed in a nutrient solution in a test tube. Then sperm is added. About a week later the eggs are replaced in the woman's womb.

Wheat patch yields impressive figure

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (AP) — Forest Sawmiller figures his wheat patch set a record in yield this year.

He harvested 558 bushels on 7.0 acres, equal to 79.7 bushels per acre.

Ohio Assembly eyes pay hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Senate-House committee trying to agree on supplemental appropriations is looking at a proposal to boost the pay of most state employees by 25 cents an hour.

The increase would apply only to those who earn less than $12,000 a year, or about 69,000 of the 80,000 employees who work for the state, its universities, and county welfare departments.

Although the proposal has not been finalized, it falls short of the 31-cent hourly boost being demanded by guards and others involved in the series of work stoppages at state correctional institutions.

Republicans and Democrats alike on the six-member conference committee have stated they will not be coerced by the strikes, and whatever raise there might be will be the result of funds available when considered along with other pressing needs.

The committee, which meets again Tuesday, remains in a deadlock over a Republican proposal to repeal the state's intangibles tax on earnings from stocks and bonds.

Sen. Max H. Dennis, R-10 Wilmington, and the other GOP conferees came away from a secret committee meeting Friday saying Democratic refusal to repeal the tax could cause negotiations to collapse.

That development could lead to the appointment of a new conference committee, but more likely would mean there would be no bill this year to allocate a newly announced $80.5 million surplus or $43.5 million in expected profits from the state lottery

Minor fire doused

A car owned by Terry Trimmer, CCC Highway-E, backfired through the carburetor and ignited at 9:14 p.m. Sunday, while parked at Frisch's, 543 Clinton Ave.

Washington C.H. firemen were dispatched to the scene and extinguished the blaze with water. They estimated about $100 in damage.

which goes into operation next month. Gov. John J. Gilligan and Democrats control the House 58-41, but the GOP has a 17-16 edge in the Senate where administration programs die unless a bipartisan agreement can be worked out. Repeal of the five per cent, flat rate intangibles tax would cost the state $30 million the first six months of next year and $60 million annually thereafter, according to Dennis who put the repealer into the Democratic House bill when it reached the Senate in early June.
